TO: GENERAL BRENT SCOWCROFT
WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, D.C.

FROM: AMBASSADOR HELMS, TEHRAN 001

1. Would you please be good enough to pass the following message from me to Donald Rumsfeld: BEGIN TEXT Former Secretary of the Treasury David Kennedy has been visiting Tehran for a few days on business and has had some interesting conversations, particularly one with the Minister of Economics and Finance, Hushang Ansary. May I encourage you to debrief David Kennedy when he returns to the United States since I believe what he has to say will be of use and interest to the President and you. He intends to seek you out. This message is simply an alert. Warm regards. END OF TEXT.

2. Many thanks and all best wishes.
